

Magic Land
By Charlton Zhu
Age 7

One day when Christopher was jumping up and down on the grass, he discovered a secret door to a magic land. As soon as he opened the door, he found he could fly! He flew to the magic land, Magsilanhast. It was awesome. The king of Magsilanhast knew Christopher had come, so he welcomed Christopher and gave him a magic wand. The wand would give Christopher three wishes for his journey through Magsilanhast.

The next day, Christopher started his magical journey. However, there were many monsters on the way of his journey. On the first day, a giant spider attacked Christopher. It spun webs on him, but Christopher used his magic wand to get rid of the webs. On the second day, a one-hundred-eyed giraffe tried to attack Christopher. He defeated the monster giraffe using his wand. On the last day of his journey, Christopher came across a heavy grassy door that he could not open. Once again, his magic wand helped him. Christopher stepped out of the door and found himself in his own backyard.

“Christopher, time for picnic!” Christopher opened his eyes to his mother’s call and found himself napping on the picnic blanket. He was still waving his popsicle stick in his hand...
